ings in either branch, on terms that will help competition in offering our States the commodities we desire.
 The cost of our goods is low, and they are so arranged that they can be purchased at any other place, being entirely in patterns, manufactured with care and from the very best materials. The following list of patterns is the substance that will give satisfaction in every particular: viz:

THE ECONOMIST
DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE, (Which received the First Premium at the St.
 Fair, lately held at Jonesville.)

Possesses great advantages over every other stove, for it will burn all three kinds of fuel, and is so arranged that either kind can be used at pleasure. It will cook in half the time of any other stove now in use, and with less

TRIUMPH, single door, takes in long wood, but has excellent stove—one that has been well tested, and gives excellent satisfaction.

THE JACO is different in its construction from any other make, in the arrangement of the fire—has been acknowledged to be a great improvement.

THE JACO FAMILY is adapted for use in either wood or coal, and has the most convenient ever offered to the public, having all the conveniences of the stove connected with the beauty of the open grate. It is beautifully finished, and is a great improvement in the stove department, highly recommended.

THE JACO has a grate and a stove below the grate being enclosed with three doors, and so arranged that when open they are completely out of sight. It is equally adapted for use in either wood or coal.

RADIATOR is the best coal stove ever put out, and a great heater.

Personal purchasing is NOT allowed of the plates calling for the cut at all times be employed extra, thus superfluous the necessity of throwing away stores, which many are actually compelled to do in the Eastern zone.

There were in want of an article in our line, with it for their advantage to give us a call, before giving satisfaction elsewhere, as we are confident that we can give satisfaction in all cases. City references shown, where one stores part of the city, free of charge. All orders promptly filled to order.
